

SEVENTH MIDWEST POE SEMINAR

April 19 - 20, 1980

To Be Held at Northwestern University

The following people have accepted invitations to talk:

- L. C. Evans, University of Kentucky
- C. Fols, Indiana University
- P. D. Lax, Courant Institute, N. Y. U.
- E. Lieb, Princeton University
- G. Metivier, Visiting, Purdue University
- J. Palmore, University of Illinois, Urbana
- J. Spruck, Brooklyn College
- B. Turkington, Northwestern University

We have reserved blocks of rooms at the following hotels:

- (1) Orrington Hotel, 1710 Orrington Avenue, Evanston, $29.75 per night.
- (2) Holiday Inn, 1510 Sherman Avenue, Evanston, $41.00 per night.
- (3) Howard Johnson's, 9333 Skokie Boulevard, Skokie, $32.50 per night.

Hotels (1), (2) are in downtown Evanston, 5-10 minute walk from the campus. Motel (3) is a 10-15 minute drive from the campus.

For those who fly into Chicago, there is a bus service between O'Hare Airport and Evanston. The bus departs from the airport every hour on the half-hour with the last bus departing O'Hare at 8:30 p.m. The bus stops at both the Orrington Hotel and the Holiday Inn.

People should make their own reservations and indicate that they are participating in the POE Seminar at Northwestern University since the above prices are N.U. institutional rates. Reservations should be made not later than April 3, 1980 -- the hotels have agreed to keep the reserved blocks only until that date.

A second and final announcement will be sent by the last week in March.
