

Gregory Cherlin

Connected Groups of Finite Morley rank

The Algebraicity Conjectures states that groups of finite Morley rank are algebraic. Work toward this conjecture has led not only to its confirmation in special cases, but to some general structural results that bypass the question of algebraicity. We will survey some of this work, and give an application to permutation groups.