

An impressionistic painting of a city skyline with a large fountain in the foreground. The fountain has multiple tiers and a central column of water. The city buildings are rendered in various colors like red, blue, and grey. The overall style is textured and expressive.

22ND ANNUAL CHICAGO SYMPOSIUM SERIES
EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING MATHEMATICS
AND SCIENCE: RESEARCH AND PRACTICE

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2020
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT CHICAGO

RENEE COLE

Professor of Chemistry
University of Iowa

KRISTIN UMLAND

Vice President for Content Development
Illustrative Mathematics

THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 2020
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

MEGAN BANG

Professor of Learning Sciences
Northwestern University

VILMA MESA

Professor of Mathematics Education
University of Michigan

www.math.uic.edu/chicagosymposia

*The 2020 symposia are partially supported by the Illinois Board of Higher Education;
Northwestern University; and the University of Illinois at Chicago.*