

NAME :

Type of Calculator :

Consider $f(x) = x^2 + 3x + 1$.

1. Use divided differences to compute the polynomial p interpolating f at $x_k = k$, for $k = 0, 1, 2, 3$.

2. Explain why the last divided difference you computed must be zero.